

Robert I. Lindsay

MIN. HOME—Robert I. Lindsay, 80, died June 19, 1995, at a Roosevelt Hospital. Born July 28, 1914, to George Geddes and Rose Mary Lindsay, one of 13 children. Married Elizabeth Mae Reynolds November 12, 1935. He lived in Min. Home all his life. He was a farmer and worked construction. He enjoyed the out-of-doors, hunting, fishing, his family and grandchildren.

He is survived by wife of Min. Home; children and spouses, Carol (Dan) Stevenson, Allamont; Allen Bob (Ena Rd) Bonebrake, Della Mae (Larry) Mutchie, Scott Lake; Roselle (Dennis) Griffin, Seattle, Wash.; 14 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mollie Clark, Rose Swallow, Isobel Roberts, all Scott Lake; brother, James I. Lindsay, Min. Home.

Funeral Saturday, 11 a.m., at the Lake Fork LDS Church, where friends may call Friday evening 7-9 p.m., and Saturday, 10-10:45 a.m. Burial, Min. Home-Bonebrake Cemetery under direction of Hurlinger-Olpin Mortuary, Roosevelt.

N 6/21